Footnotes:

<sup>1/</sup> The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

<sup>2/</sup> File the preelection statements if payments of $500 or more are received or made during the corresponding period to produce a slate mailer in connection with an election. Filing deadlines for local elections held on March 8, 2005, June 7, 2005, and November 8, 2005, are available on the FPPC web site (www.fppc.ca.gov).

<sup>3/</sup> In addition to paper reports, a state slate mailer organization must file electronically if, beginning January 1, 2000, the organization receives or makes payments totaling $50,000 or more for the purpose of producing slate mailers. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

<sup>5/</sup> File the semi-annual statements if payments of $500 or more are received or made to produce a slate mailer during the corresponding period.

Additional Notes:

- Slate Mailers in Connection with March 2006 Election:
A slate mailer organization that produces a slate mailer between July 1, 2005 and December 31, 2005, supporting or opposing a candidate or measure being voted on March 7, 2006, may have different filing requirements for the last six months of 2005. Contact the FPPC for specific information.
- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.

As of the date of this publication (8/04), the 2004 Addendum to FPPC Campaign Disclosure Manuals contains the most recent information on campaign disclosure requirements. Legislative amendments to the Political Reform Act may go into effect that will change information contained in the 2004 Addendum and this filing schedule. Be sure to check the FPPC web site (www.fppc.ca.gov) for updated information.
